Eat Haskap, Live Well

With a rich history that was first officially documented in 1755, the Haskap Health Movement has migrated from northeastern Asia across the world to find a home here in Nova Scotia, where these hardy and healthy berries are grown naturally, picked fresh and quickly frozen.

The Haskap berry's unique oval-rectangular shape results from each whole berry actually consisting of twin berries wrapped in an outer purple-blue skin. This two-for-one berry also has a remarkable flavour profile. Imagine a mash-up of grape, raspberry, blueberry and black currant topped with a zingy finish. Every Haskap berry tells its own story!
